Two eminent Phyſicians are ſet out from hence for St. Ildefonſa, on account of the Queen Dowager being indiſpoſed at that Place.

Naples, July 5. We hear from Civitella, in the ulterior Abbruzzo, that at the latter End of laſt Month, they had felt, for ſeveral Days together, at the Riſing and Setting of the Sun, very ſtrong Earthquakes, ſome Shocks of which had Genoa, July 9. Letters from Bastia of the 2d Instant advise, that the Deputies from Corsica were to assemble at Corti, in order to receive their Instructions, and then to go to Bastia to treat with the Republick's Commissary General for an Accommodation.

Ratisbon, July 14. The Ministers of the Protestant Princes of the Empire have again held a great Assembly for some Days, in which, amongst other Deliberations, they have agreed to take more efficacious Measures than those they have as yet made use of, in order to get Redress of the Grievances of which several Protestant Communitities have already made their Complaints, at several Times to the Aulick Council of the Empire, without the desired Success. Berlin, July 18. The Queen continues the Use of the Mineral Waters with great Success at Schonhausen, where the Princess Consort of his Royal Highness the Prince of Prussia waited on her Majesty last Saturday. The same Day arrived here from Glatz, the Baron La Mothe-Foucquet, Lieutenant General of Foot, and Commandant of that Place, who went the next Day to Potzdam, where he was to receive some particular Orders from the King. The Marquess of Castromonte, a Spanish Nobleman of great Distinction by his Birth, who is visiting the principal Courts of Europe, arrived here some Days ago from Hanover, and has already had the Honour to be presented to the Queens, and to the Princes and Princesses of the Royal Family.

Berlin, July 21. Some Days ago a considerable Number of Troopers, belonging to his Royal Highness the Prince of Prussia's Regiment, mutinied against one of their Officers; they pretended that he had killed one of their Comrades by severe Usage, and in Consequence thereof refused to attend the Burial of the deceased. This Disobedience has been severely punished, as contrary to the Military Discipline, so strictly observed amongst the Prussian Troops. Every one of the Mutineers was arrested, and a Council of War being held, eight of them were sentenced to be hanged, and were immediately executed; the others, less guilty, have ran the Gauntlet two successive Days.

Copenhagen, July 21. Two of the four Danish Frigates which were sent out at different Times to the Coast of Barbary, are now returned hither, the third is hourly expected with Colonel Longueville on board, a Treaty of Peace and Commerce having been concluded between Denmark and the Emperor of Morocco, in Consequence whereof that Minister and his Followers are redeemed; but the fourth Frigate, called the Falster, a Forty Gun Ship, had the Misfortune, on the very Day of Rejoycing for the Conclusion of the Peace, and the Delivery of the Captives, to take Fire and blow up. The Captain, who assisted at the Entertainment given on that Occasion by the Commodore, escaped, with 186 of his Men, but the Remainder, being above 100, perished, except about 20, who got to shore near Saffy, where this Accident happen'd, and are as yet in the Hands of the Moors; 'tis hoped, however, that their Liberty may be obtained without Ransom.
